

"Hello! Health lovers"

Int'l Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA2021)

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa and allow participants from around the world to share and learn about progress made, best practices in public health interventions and the latest in innovative research.

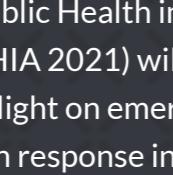

2022.5.22 ~ 2022.5.22

@National museum Lagos, Nigeria.

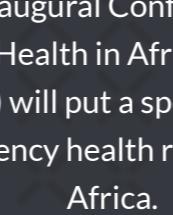

C

Main Program

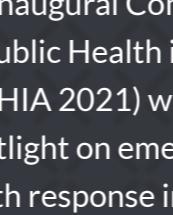

Lecture

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa.

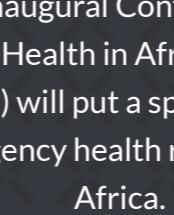

Health Exhibition

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa.

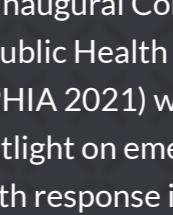

Forum

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa.

Workshop

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa.

Health Ignite

The inaugural Conference on Public Health in Africa (CPHIA 2021) will put a spotlight on emergency health response in Africa.

SEE THE WHOLE PROGRAM

Featured speakers

Dr. Amadou-Sall

Dr Amadou A Sall is the CEO of Institut Pasteur de Dakar in Senegal.

Director of the WHO Collaborating Center for Arboviruses and Viral Hemorrhagic Fever. He has been chairman of the Global Outbreak Alert and Response Network and a member of the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness and Innovation (CEPI) Scientific Advisory Board.

Dr. Ernest-Darkoh

Expert on health systems strengthening and large-scale program implementation.

He is on the Board of the Schwab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship and has been recognized by New African Magazine as one of the 100 most influential Africans and named one of eighteen "Global Health Heroes" by TIME Magazine.

Dr.Yvonne-Mburu

Founder of Nekakili, a growing network of African health professionals and scientists.

Her academic research at the Curie Institute in Paris and at the University of Pittsburgh, PA originally focused on the immunology and immunotherapy of cancer. Her work also spans health systems and policies, with a key focus on integrating breakthrough technologies to accelerate the pace of innovative medicine especially in Africa.

Professor-Tom-Kariuki

Prof Thomas Kariuki is Executive Director of the Science for Africa (SFA) Foundation.

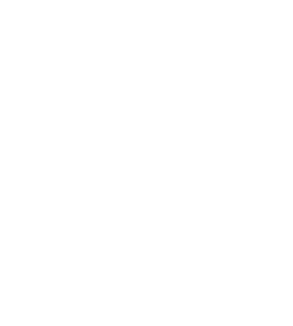

Dr Kariuki previously served as the Director of Programmes for the Alliance for Accelerating Excellence in Science in Africa (AESA) and Director of a Biomedical facility, the Institute of Primate Research / National Museums of Kenya where he established his infectious immunology research group.

Professor-Helen-Rees

Professor Helen Rees is the Founder and Executive Director of Wits RHI, the largest research Institute at Wits University.

Professor Rees chairs the Board of the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority and also Chairs the World Health Organisation's AFRO Region Immunization Technical Advisory Group. Also a member of WHO's Scientific and Technical Advisory Group on Infectious Hazards.

Dr.-Yvonne-Mburu

Dr. Vera Songwe is the Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations and Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA).

Upon her appointment, she became the first woman to lead the institution in its 60-year history. She was listed as one of Africa's 50 most powerful women by Forbes in 2020 and named as one of the '100 Most Influential Africans' by Jeune Afrique in 2019. In 2017.

Partner

BBC
Learning